God has made this world for us
The mountains, sea and sky
He made the land to stand upon,
Its planned for you and I
God made some amazin' stuff
He's such an awesome guy!
He filled the world with creatures that can crawl and swim and fly

God has made the people that walk past me every day
They often stop to ask me how I am, I say "OK"
God has made my friends for me
Who come around and play
He sees us when we laugh and sing
And often go astray

Some people say there was a bang, and our world came to be
But we believe its made by God and so we disagree
Just how did people come from apes, there ain't no guarantee
Just listen to The Monkey Chorus - end of this CD!

Ooh Aah Ooh Aah

Adam and Eve thought the monkeys were fools
 Couldn't find evidence that they could use tools
 Even though apes have opposable thumbs
 All they could do was sit on their bums
 "Orang-utan, if you can,
 Why don't you speak just like a man?"
 The apes hung around in the trees all day
 They opened their mouths, but all they could say

Was
Ooh-Aah-Ooh-Aah-Ooh-Aah-Ooh

Adam and Eve came back at night
 To see if the apes were ever so bright
 But like all their breed they couldn't read
 And try as they might, they couldn't write
 When they had babies, it never changed
 Each generation was just the same
 So Adam and Eve agreed that day
 That all the apes would ever say

Was
Ooh-Aah-Ooh-Aah-Ooh-Aah-Ooh
